

—William O'Neill

art Foundation

Kingston campaign starts next Sunday

Ice time

Although the Kingston waterfront will be filled with hundreds of sails this summer during the sailing Olympics, only a single iceboat was seen darting about the waterfront Sunday. The ice-covered lake is less attractive to sailors than the sun-drenched, rolling waves of the summertime. The iceboat is framed by the sculpture Time on King street.