

The Royal Canadian Academy of Arts
8 Adelaide Street East
TORONTO, Ontario
Tel: 363-9612

Thursday February 16, 1989 at 8:00 pm
In the RCA Gallery

KOSSO ELOUL

Peter Hamilton: Kosso, what will you call the topic of your discussion and slides?

Kosso Eloul: Well, Peter, we could call it: "The joys and sorrows of making high visibility permanent art..."

Peter: Not bad...but...

Kosso: How about: "Sculpture and Architecture / Problems and some solutions"?

Peter: Do you really like that?

Kosso: Well, how about: "Today's making of Tomorrow's Heritage, Problems and some Solutions"?

Peter: O.K. let's do it!

"MEETING PLACE" (at Bloor and Church Street)
Dedicated by Mayor Art Eggleton as the gift of Crown Life to the City of Toronto celebrating its 150 th Anniversary in 1984.

A "walkinto" sculpture, is it or is it not ?